Dear Hiring Manager,

I am thrilled to submit my application for the position of Data Analyst for Finance and Fraud Analytics. I am passionate about working with data and possibility to take a part of fraud prevention, and I take the chance to start my career as a Data Analyst with Statkraft. By combining my love for data analysis with the chance to make a positive impact on our planet, I am driven to excel in this role and contribute meaningfully to Statkraft's mission. Furthermore, The vision and culture of Statkraft deeply resonate with my core values and aspirations, making it the perfect fit for me.

Throughout my career, I have accumulated extensive experience in financial product sales, department management, operational efficiency, research, and analysis. I have successfully identified cost-saving opportunities and improved process efficiency through meticulous data analysis. My proactive approach, enthusiasm, curiosity to acquire new knowledge, rapid learning ability, and adeptness in navigating high-pressure environments have consistently contributed to exceeding targets, leading to frequent promotions and increased responsibilities.

I actively pursue the expansion of my knowledge in Excel, SQL, Power BI, and Python for data analysis purposes, and I am committed to continuous learning, ensuring I stay up-to-date with the latest advancements in this rapidly evolving field. In fact, I recently completed several projects where I utilized Excel, SQL, and Power BI to analyze and visualize financial data, gaining valuable hands-on experience in these tools.

Having lived in different countries (Austria, 2019–2021, and Norway, since January 2022), I appreciate diverse cultures and possess excellent communication and interpersonal skills. My volunteer experience at the Embassy of Ukraine in the Kingdom of Norway and translation work for the Historical Museum have honed my organizational, analytical, and language skills, as well as attention to detail.

I am a holder of a residence card in Norway, and I bring a proactive, curious and positive mindset to every challenge, thriving in fast-paced environments. With my diverse background, strong research and analytical skills, continuous learning mindset, commitment to self-improvement, and genuine passion for technology and data, I am confident in my ability to quickly grasp new concepts and become a valuable asset to the Statkraft team.

Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to the opportunity to discuss my qualifications further with you.

Sincerely,
Anna Goetz
